AITA - Reducing a Mother and her Daughter to tears on a flight.

Me and my wife were at a party and we had a couples rapid fire round where they asked us all sorts of weird questions. One of them being about the animal your SO resembles the most.

I honestly did not have a lot of time to think and I said that I believe my wife is similar to a cow. Since she is really patient, eats slowly and is a gentle human being who looks after others and spreads happiness like a cow spreads its milk.

It was honestly a really weird answer(did not think it through) but my wife is upset and thinks I am an asshole while I genuinely do not know if I did anything wrong.
